

Core responsibilities: The basic duty of a police officer is to protect the citizens and prevent crime. In order to do that, Police implements and enforces laws of the land. It also has a solemn duty to initiate the process of criminal justice when offenders/perpetrators of crime take the law in their own hands.