Usthi	Usthi PS Case No. 285/15 dated 15.05.2015 U/S. 302/34 IPC	Therefore the expiry of her father there was a dispute between her uncle and her father over the issue of landed property. Her father was a simple minded person and taking this opportunity her uncle Hemanta Rong had sold out large portion of landed property belongs to her father to another persons showing third person before the buyer as his elder brother i.e. Abhimunya Rong. Said Hemanta Rong also tried to grab the remaining portion of land without intimating to the mother of complainant. Her uncle i.e. accused Hemanta Rong also threatened her mother for killing on different occasions and as her mother used to reside along she became afraid and did not disclose the same to her neighbours. One Smt. Ganga Bar, W/O. Manotosh Bar who used to reside near the house of her mother had an intimacy with her mother Bimala Rong. On 15.05.2015 morning at about 07.30 hrs while said Ganga Bar noticed that her mother Bimala Rong did not woke up she went to her house and found that her mother Bimala Rong was lying dead in the room on her Cot. Being informed over phone the complainant, her husband and other sisters rushed there and found her mother lying on the Cot with strangulation by her wearing Saree and there were so many marks of assault in the whole body of said Bimala Rong. Seeing this the complainant and her other sisters became confirmed that her uncle Hemanta Rong and cousin brother Soumen Rong, S/O. Hemanta Rong had committed such brutal murder of her mother Bimala Rong over the issue of previous grudge and also with a view to grab the landed property. Hence the case. Over this Usthi PS U/D.
